MARKLEY WAITHE

Orlando, FL 32824
717-439-3446 markwaithe@yahoo.com

OBJECTIVE

A challenging position

Summary

Perceptive military professional with a total of 34 years of Army experience, retired as a Chief Warrant Officer Four in May 2019 with 32 years of active duty Army service. Possess wide-ranging solid discipline, leadership, operational and logistical management experience. Proven ability to adapt to new surroundings and situations. Very proficient in the military's operational, personnel and logistical management. Able to extract and translate complex information into clear and concise message. An ethical decision maker based on the consistency of ethical principles. Possess leadership traits such as coach, mentor, teacher, teamwork, quality assurance, and loyalty. Current active Secret Security Clearance.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Senior Ordnance Logistics Manager, U.S. Army

- Effectively managed, planned, organized, and executed the logistic and maintenance program for 93 Military Units throughout the mid-east and east coast to include Puerto Rico.
- Implemented the maintenance management program that consolidated medical logistics and medical maintenance into the ordnance maintenance management system that allowed all companies to successfully maintained, managed and accounted for 100% of their unit's equipment totaling over $850 million.
- Conducted Program Inspections and assisted visits to ensure companies are operating with in regulatory guidelines resulted in the sustainment of optimum operation.
- Duties involved the the Management, training and evaluating of over 195 personnel to include the enforcement of Military and OSHA Safety rules and regulations.

Project Manager & Contracting Officer Representative (COR), U.S. Army

- Managed a wide range of significant military projects such as the migration of 89 military units/companies to the Army's version of the Systems, Applications and Products (SAP) automated system. The successful challenges and end goal of this project was identifying and eliminating over 10,000 data errors along with coordinating and ensuring 2,105 potential new operators effectively complete the required five in classroom courses before attempting the migration process which had a timeline and budget restraint which was met at 23% under forecast.
- Over a 10-year period I've successfully provided and met the budgetary, logistical and personal resources of over 1200 regular and special interest projects with 100% success rate.
- Assisted the regional contracting officer by ensuring proper development of requirements and assist Contracting Officers in managing their contracts.

- Approving Authority for the Unit's Government Purchasing Card, which involve reviewing, approving or rejecting all potential purchases as well as ensuring the three-quote system is utilize and the rotation of vendors.

Commandant/Director, U.S. Army, Fort Indiantown Gap, PA

- Took command and control of the Regional Training Site (RTS) which is a teaching institute for over 600 students.
- Overall responsible for the moral, welfare and training of over 600 students.
- Under my leadership the institute was awarded the distinct accreditation rating of "Institution of Excellence"
- Increased student volume by 10%, improved ratio of conduct to non-conduct classes to 98% resulting in an overall graduation rate of 95%.

Deputy Commandant/Director, U.S. Army, Fort Indiantown Gap, PA

- Manage the logistics and human resources for the Regional Training Site.
- Ensured equipment and resources requires to support training are on hand and available for instructors to conduct training for over 600 students.
- Quality assurance inspector ensuring all approved courses are conducted within regularity guide lines and resolved all student, instructor or technological conflicts.
- Effectively forecast and execute an annual budget of over 32 million to support a 600-student institution.
- As the Executive Officer my additional role was providing training, career counselling and mentorship to prospective warfighters during the heart of the Iraq and Afghanistan war.
- Managed the Training Aids, Devices Simulators and Simulations (TADSS) such as but not limited to Cat Simulators Hydraulic Excavator, fielded training aids, devices and simulators, Home-station Instrumentation Training Systems (HITS), Engagement Skills Trainers (EST), HMMWV Egress Assistance Trainer (HEAT), Maintenance Training devices etc.
- Property Accountability Officer responsible for all equipment, resources and training aids for the RTS with an excess value of over $750 million.

EDUCATION

MBA, Business Administration, GPA: 3.68 Columbia Southern University, 2009
B.S, Business & Government, Liberty University, VA 2007
A.D, Criminal Justice, Georgia Military College, GA 2000

JOB-RELATED TRAINING COURSES

Active Shooter Training 2015
Advance Leadership Training 2014
Environmental Compliance 2013
Security Clearance (Secret) 2013
Army Version of SAP Training 2013
Sexual Harassment/Assault Response and Prevention (SHARP) 2012
Property Accountability Officer Training 2007
Equal Opportunity Representative Course 2007
Proficient in Microsoft Office Suite